11 AM	The Dragons' Scales The Dragons' Scales are an inclusive pagan a Capella singing group. Established in 2024, our musical support encourages deeper ritual experiences for Frederick Covenant of Unitarian Universalist Pagans (FCUUPS) event participants. We have been honored to open for Kindred Crow, provide occasional musical support for Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Frederick (UUCF) Sunday services, and perform at the very first Frederick Fantasy Market.	Stage

12 PM	Pagan Paths Roundtable Join representatives from different Pagan traditions and religions for a roundtable discussion.	Wkshp Area 1
12 PM	Fighting Dragons and Nazis with Eric Our ancestors understood that Dragons were sometimes emblems of Greed (Misers) that refused to support their community and our very recent ancestors all worked together to defeat the Nazis. Can we do anything BUT honor their memory and take Inspiration from their courage? This ritual will honor these truths and find our courage to follow in their footsteps. There will be toasts and declarations in the fashion of Heathen traditions, nonalcoholic and alcoholic options will be available for toasting.	Wkshp Area 2

1 PM	Introduction to Healing Crystals with Starfire Crystals (and stones) are used as sacred magical tools which can be used to help in healing, spells, rituals, or making charms. Crystals are an easy, accessible, and fun way to enhance your practice. In this workshop we will cover the basics of healing crystals, clearing and charging your crystals for use, safety concerns, magical/divination practices, and some correspondences. We will have short exercises during this workshop.	Wkshp Area 1
1 PM	Kindred Crow Kindred Crow is an acoustic journey through mystery, magic, myth, and mirth. Pagan Folk: Soaring lyrics over powerful rhythms. A little bit of magic, a dash of mystery, and a whole lot of revelry. Like their namesake, the Crows offer a musical mix that strikes a balance of compelling beauty, resonant storytelling, and more than a little bit of mischief.	Stage
2 PM	Main Ritual with Firefly House	Event Field

3 PM	Create Your Own Candle Story with Tara Tara M. Clapper (TaraTheBard) will guide you to discern your own story—that part of yourself you wish to empower through story and ritual practice—and to create and decorate a chime candle for reflection and personal ritual. Instead of carving into the candles, we will use wax candle write-on tools. Paper and pens will also be available, but please feel free to bring your own, as well as any candle purchased from the friendly vendors at the event. Children are welcome to participate with an adult to help them. (We will not be carving or lighting candles.) Recommended age 8 and above.	Wkshp Area 1

------	--	-----------------

4 PM	Hearth of Hestia: A Hellenic Ritual for Community and Resilience Join the Potomac Valley Palladium, a local inclusive Hellenic Polytheist group, for a ritual in honor of Hestia and the bonds of community between all of us. Inspired by the ancient idea of the hearth of Hestia—the eternal flame of community and hospitality that never dies— participants will symbolically link their own hearths by contributing an item from their homes to create a community altar. The items will then be blessed and returned, so that everyone can carry the resilient light that we’ve raised home with them. Participants of all ages, paths, and walks of life are welcome to join us, regardless of whether or not they are able to bring an item for the altar.	Wkshp Area 2
